

Snappy Parade At Heber

HEBER CITY — One of Utah's most colorful county fairs was at the midway point here today, with the first of two parade performances scheduled tonight at 6 p.m.

More than 100 entries, including bands and pretty girls from throughout the state, will be packed into the Wasatch County Fair parade on Heber City's Main Street.

The parade will be followed both tonight and Saturday by the traditional rodeo at 8 p.m. at the rodeo grounds.

Already come and gone on the fair schedule have been sidewalk sales, dairy judging, sheep judging, horse show and judging, car driving, tractor driving and livestock judging contests.

The opening fair dance will be held tonight at 8 p.m.

Royalty in the parade will include local girls as well as queens from American Fork, Kamas, Springville, Park City, Spanish Fork and Provo, plus Miss Utah, Miss Utah State Fair and the Utah State Dairy Princess.

Riding clubs, the Salt Lake Scots pipe band and the Salt

Parade chairman Dr. Larry Duke discusses line of march with queen's attendant Mary Carlson.

Lake Motorcycle Patrol will also spice the parade. It will repeat at 6 p.m. Saturday.

Other Saturday events will include children's races and the Junior Fat Stock Sale at 10 a.m.; a tug-of-war, 1 p.m.; horse races, 2 p.m., and the closing fair dance at 9:30 p.m.

All exhibits are at Wasatch High School, open Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Still Acting

less probable is the return of another 1930s star, Greta Garbo, though producers keep trying.

James Cagney still resists the repeated urgings to give up his retirement. Norma Shearer has never returned since her last film in 1942. Child star Jackie Cooper is now a television executive, and Shirley Temple combined housewifery and politics. Freddie Bartholomew became an advertising executive.

Among the others who are retired or in other professions: William Powell, Robert Montgomery, Randolph Scott, Sonja Henie, George Brent, Deanna Durbin, Madeleine Carroll, Johnny Weismuller, Fay Wray, Luise Rainer, Gene Austria, Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Paulette Godard, Joe E. Brown.

And if you remember all those names, you've got to be over 40 or a student of the late, late show.

Final Showing Next Week For 'Charity,' 'Funny Girl'

Both "Sweet Charity" and "Funny Girl," musical films which have been playing first-run engagements in Salt Lake for several months, will wind up those runs next Tuesday.

"Sweet Charity," starring Shirley MacLaine as a dance-hall hostess, has been playing at the Villa Theater. It will be replaced by "Krakatoa; East of Java," which opens at an invitational premiere Wednesday and starts its public engagement Thursday.

"Funny Girl," which moved to the Towne Theater after a long run at the Century 21, stars Barbra Streisand in a role that won her the best actress award in her first movie. It is expected to be replaced Wednesday at the Towne by "Midnight Cowboy," starring Dustin Hoffman.
